

Bonitata Boutique Wine | Choose one of our two tastings. Choose between our regular tasting of five wines off our menu, including White, Rosé, Red, and sweet wines. Our sparkling wines will be open. Our other tasting will give you an opportunity to taste the three wines that go into our new cab squared blend. You will then taste the blend that was made from those three wines. As your fifth wine, you can choose anything off the main menu. As usual, we will have some great deals for those looking to purchase wine. First everyone will be a club member for a day and receive 20% off any regularly priced wines. We will also have our reds on sale buy two get your third for a dollar we will also have some specials on our whites and sparkling wines. Case buyers can enjoy mix and match cases starting at $150.

Cante ao Vinho | Step into Cante Ao Vinho's cellar, where our secret library wines—usually just for the Farinha family—are ready to be savored! Winemakers Frank and Tom have picked cheeses to complement every sip. Sunday stay for live music by Roni & Rochelle at 2 PM. And here's the deal: Wine club members snag a case for $216, but anyone can build a case for $324. Come taste, get cozy, listen to the Farinha brothers lovingly debate the nuances of their favorite library wines.

Casque | We're shining a spotlight on our Adrian Red Blend, our homage to the noble Mourvèdre grape. Rich notes of dark fruit, woodland earth, and savory depth emerge slowly, revealing new dimensions with each vintage. Mourvèdre is known for its quiet strength; it asks for time, but generously rewards patience. We'll be pouring a curated vertical of several vintages so you can experience its evolution in the bottle.
